CAN YOU RECALL THIS BIT OF OLD PHILADELPHIA? WE SHOW YOU 410 LIBRARY STREET. The building was occupied by William Jack & Son, dealers in carriages. Photograph was taken in 1880. Shortly after the American Bank Note Company bought the building and site in 1882 it razed the structure to make way for its manufacturing plant. Subsequently Library street was changed to Sansom street. Thus the site is now 410 Sansom street. Robert Jack, Sr., 203 Clifton avenue, Collingdale, furnished the photograph. If you have an old Philadelphia photograph send it to the EVENING PUBLIC LEDGER.
